PROVIDING A BALANCED LITERATURE PROGRAM FOR YOUR STUDENTS

For teachers 3–6

Presented by Mandy Tunica,*

Education Consultant & Author of 'A passion for poetry', published by PETA

To appreciate and understand their culture and sharpen their literary taste-buds students need a well-balanced literary diet. Picture books, traditional literature, poetry, fantasy, science fiction, historical fiction, social realism, and even popular fiction, all have a place. This workshop will assist teachers to select and teach a variety of literary genres. Practical teaching strategies and a wide range of texts, plus lists of titles, suggested activities and useful references will be used to illustrate the various genres and how to teach them in the classroom. Ideas on how to expand school resources without breaking the budget will also be shared.
